Product description

Color: 12 Oz.

Hundreds of thousands of people already know about the health benefits of ionic silver to boost the immune system of adults, kids, and even pets. Silver Support is next generation colloidal silver with nano-sized particles proven to be far more effective than colloidal silver. And recent university tests show Silver Support acts twice as fast as the leading nano silver brand on the market at half the price. Silver Support is the only nano silver vendor focusing on gallon and quart sizes at huge discounts and even our 12 ounce bottle is cheaper than their 8 ounce bottle. Our solution is verified at full 10 parts per million strength even beyond the 3 year product expiration date which is a year longer than the leading brand. Our 3 to 5 nano meter size and our water cluster delivery system are unique in the industry. This small particle size and ultra pure water structure is optimal for absorption and elimination from the body. Significant elimination is measurable as soon as two hours and effectively gone within 24 hours.

EXCELLENT!!

I used sovereign colloidal silver for years- but I can tell this works much better- I use to kill UTI / yeast infections- it will kill a horrible infection but I find I still have to eat right and stay away from too much sugar & coffee which exacerbates the problem and also important to drink a lot of water. I always drink silver on an empty stomach and to kill a UTI infection- you have to drink at least a 1 oz serving- (you won't turn BLUE!!!) Drink a 1 oz serving on an empty stomach a couple times a day & lots of H2O- a teaspoon is not going to do it. Silver will not hurt you. For the most part silver is the main thing that has saved me with these bladder issues that I have. THIS SILVER IS AWESOME!!! Also a GREAT PRICE!! Thank you!!

A must have

My mother no longer has bedsores thanks to this product. When she was discharged from rehab she had two infected bedsores, and she was on medication and under a doctor's care. My father suggested using this and also the ointment, and the in home health people were amazed at the results. She was also getting frequent urinary tract infections prior to taking Nano Ionic Silver -- but no more. Everyone should keep this on hand.

Works. Cleared up pink eye. Great for any tummy viruses. Take it and give it when anyone's tummy hurts. Great for immunity, been giving it on and off to my kids through out the school year, only once have they had a semi cold, more like allergies. 1st year one of my kids who has gotten the flu the past 3 years, did not get it this year. I swear by this stuff. Treated my cat who had a UTI, he was better the next day.

Good, safe liquid silver product that you can trust

Reviewed in the United States on May 8, 2017

We have used colloidal silver on and off for years for various things (mostly sore throats). I found this product at a trade show in Utah and felt comfortable with the people behind the company as well as the quality of the product. We purchased some at the show and have used it all and are really grateful that they sell it on Amazon now.

We are inundated with toxins in our food, air, and water. I was always 'fighting' a cold until I started taking this nano ionic silver. Now I can't remember when I had a cold and I owe it to this silver. Thank you for this incredibly effective product.

As Good as Any I've Tried

I have used all major silver brands and find this to be as good as or better than the others. I'm semi-retired and the more affordable price is a boost as well.

Essential Natural Healing Product

Reviewed in the United States on December 30, 2015

My medicine cabinet would be bare without my colloidal silver. I use it to help prevent colds, flu and sore throats. It's indispensable for me since it helped me during a very severe bout of flu. Since then, I am never without it, and I have never had another bout of colds or flu or sore throat. I use it as soon as I feel a tickle or a sneeze. Almost miraculous.
